

You make this a poorer country by allowing ever-increasing concentration of ownership of media outlets. Try to think of your children and grandchildren. They will need to hear from a variety of voices.